Hill, Dr Andrew Malcolm (Andrew)	Consultant	Consultant	Financial interests	Shareholdings and other ownership interests	Both my wife (Jennifer Hill) and I both directly and indirectly hold shares in a number of companies relating to either the technical sector (who are suppliers to the NHS including St Helens and Knowsley Teaching Hospitals) or pharmaceutical industries. As of financial year end 2021-2, the key investments in related sectors that we hold are: Direct relevant investments (investments selected and purchased by us): Approx £5,000 in shares in Apple. Approx £4,000 in shares in Microsoft. Indirect relevant investments (where share choice is not made by ourselves): Approx £20,000 in shares in a Baillie Gifford fund; where a principle investment made by the fund is in Moderna. Approx £20,000 in an HSBC World Selection fund; which invests in the tech and healthcare sectors.	26/03/2022
Hill, Dr Andrew Malcolm (Andrew)	Consultant	Consultant	Financial interests	Shareholdings and other ownership interests	I am a co-director of Camareu Ltd, which undertakes work via St Helens Rota LLP for Mersey and West Lancashire Teaching Hospitals for non-elective / emergency cover. I have been asked given my prior expertise as CCIO to provide some consultancy work via Camareu Ltd to EPR / health informatics providers, which I may choose to do later this year. I am no longer involved in informatics at MWL having resigned as CCIO in March. Any work I do take up would not be around the MWL EPR procurement - it is likely to be around product development, clinical safety and EPR development strategy.	22/04/2024
Hill, Dr Andrew Malcolm (Andrew)	Consultant	Consultant	Financial interests	Shareholdings and other ownership interests	I am a director of Camareu Ltd, a medical services limited company, which provides services to St Helens and Knowsley Teaching Hospitals through St Helens Rota LLP.	26/03/2022

Hill, Dr Andrew Malcolm (Andrew)	Consultant	Consultant	Non-financial professional interest	Loyalty interests	I am a member of the Stroke Intercollegiate Working Party, a multidisciplinary advisory group overseeing stroke care in England, Wales and Northern Ireland. Its role is to advise on the improvement of stroke care across these areas to the various stakeholders (including NHSE/I); and to produce clinical guidelines to support best practice. My role is principally to advise on data science from a clinical perspective. I receive no financial benefits or honoraria from this work.	26/03/2022
Hill, Dr Andrew Malcolm (Andrew)	Consultant	Consultant	Non-financial professional interest	Sponsored posts	I am an honorary clinical lecturer at Liverpool University via my role at St Helens and Knowsley Teaching Hospitals. This is a non-paid and honorary position which reflects my support of the Liverpool Centre for Cardiovascular Sciences, where I am a member of their research group. I do not receive payment or honoraria of any form through that work, although I may support research projects which has received grants or funding directly to LCCS.	26/03/2022

Kiernan, Dr Tamara	Consultant	Consultant	Financial interests	Sponsored events	£500 received from Sirius Medical device company for talking at a symposium on their device. (something that we already use in the trust) This was at the Association of Breast Surgery conference in Belfast and I have deducted the amount received from my claim on my study leave form for the conference. I have therefore not received any personal financial benefit from this but the trust has. The symposium was at the end of the first day of the conference and did not clash with any of the educational talks.	16/08/2023

Wright, Mr. Ian	Senior Manager	Deputy Director of Facilities Management	Non-financial professional interest	Hospitality	I was invited, with a number of MNWL colleagues, to visit a selection of operating theatres in Northern Ireland. The event was hosted by MET Healthcare, a NI based company that we have just made an order for a theatre upgrade in Whiston Hospital. The purpose of the visit was to view the design and installation of several theatres that they have installed, at different stages of their lifecycle. The event included flights to NI, hotel accommodation (one night) and meals.	17/12/2024
